Proposal for a

COUNCIL AND COMMISSION DECISION

establishing the position concerning a Decision of the EU – Serbia Stabilisation and Association Council on its rules of procedure

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

The Stabilisation and Association Agreement between the European Union and its Member States and Serbia, is expected to enter into force during the first half of 2013, following the completion of its ratification by all Member States.

The Stabilisation and Association Council established by Article 119 of the said Agreement supervises the implementation of the Agreement and examines any major issues arising within its framework and any other bilateral or international issues of mutual interest.

As provided in Article 120 of the Stabilisation and Association Agreement, the Stabilisation and Association Council shall establish its rules of procedure. In conformity with Article 122 of the Agreement, these rules of procedure determine the duties of the Stabilisation and Association Committee, which shall assist the Stabilisation and Association Council in the performance of its duties.

As laid down by Article 3(1) of Council and Commission Decision of [REDACTED] on the conclusion of the Stabilisation and Association Agreement, the position to be taken in the Stabilisation and Association Council will be established by decision of the Council, acting on a proposal from the Commission, or, where appropriate, by the Commission.

For the information of the Council, the rules of procedure for the relevant sub-Committees and special groups are provided in a separate Annex.

The Council is therefore invited to approve the attached proposal for a Decision on the European Union and Euratom position concerning a Decision of the EU-Serbia Stabilisation and Association Council on its rules of procedure.

Proposal for a

establishing the position concerning a Decision of the EU – Serbia Stabilisation and Association Council on its rules of procedure

THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION,

THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION,

Having regard to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and in particular Article 218, paragraph 9 thereof,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Atomic Energy Community (Euratom), and in particular Article 101 thereof,

Having regard to Council and Commission Decision of on the conclusion of the Stabilisation and Association Agreement between the European Communities and their Member States, of the one part, and the Republic of Serbia (hereinafter referred to as “Serbia”), of the other part, and in particular Article 3(1) thereof,

Having regard to the proposal from the European Commission,

Whereas:

Article 119 of the Stabilisation and Association Agreement establishes a Stabilisation and Association Council.

- (1) Article 120 of said Agreement provides that the Stabilisation and Association Council shall adopt its own rules of procedures.
- (2) Article 122 of said Agreement provides that the Stabilisation and Association Council shall be assisted by a Stabilisation and Association Committee.
- (3) Article 122 of said Agreement provides that the Stabilisation and Association Council shall, in its rules of procedure, determine the duties of the Stabilisation and Association Committee and that the Stabilisation and Association Council may delegate any of its powers to the Stabilisation and Association Committee,
- (4) Article 124 of the said Agreement provides that the Stabilisation and Association Council may decide to set up other special committees or bodies that can assist it in carrying out its duties. It further provides that the Stabilisation and Association Council shall, in its rules of procedure, determine the composition and the duties of such committees and bodies and how they shall function,

HAVE DECIDED AS FOLLOWS:

Sole Article

The position to be adopted by the European Union and the Euratom, within the Stabilisation and Association Council established by Article 119 of the Stabilisation and Association Agreement between the European Communities and its Member States, of the one part, and the Republic of Serbia, of the other part, in relation to the rules of procedures of the said Stabilisation and Association Council and to the delegation of its powers to the Stabilisation and Association Committee referred to in Article 122 of the said Agreement, shall be based on the draft Decision of the Stabilisation and Association Council, annexed to this Decision. Minor amendments to this draft Decision may be accepted without further decision by the Council and the Commission.

ANNEX

to the Council and Commission decision establishing the position to be adopted in the EU-Serbia Stabilisation and Association Council on its rules of procedure

Decision No 1 of the EU – Serbia Stabilisation and Association Council of [date] adopting its rules of procedure

THE STABILISATION AND ASSOCIATION COUNCIL,

Having regard to the Stabilisation and Association Agreement between the European Communities and its Member States, of the one part, and the Republic of Serbia (hereinafter referred to as “Serbia”), of the other part, and in particular Articles 119 and 120 thereof,

Whereas that Agreement entered into force on [redacted],

HAS DECIDED AS FOLLOWS:

Article 1

Chairmanship

The Stabilisation and Association Council shall be chaired over alternately for periods of 12 months by the President of the Foreign Affairs Council of the European Union, on behalf of the European Union and its Member States and the European Atomic Energy Community, and by a representative of the Government of Serbia. The first period shall begin on the date of the first Stabilisation and Association Council meeting and end on 31 December 2013.

Article 2

Meetings

The Stabilisation and Association Council shall meet at ministerial level once a year. Special sessions of the Stabilisation and Association Council may be held at the request of either Party, if the Parties so agree. Unless otherwise agreed by the Parties, each session of the Stabilisation and Association Council shall be held at the usual venue for meetings of the Council of the European Union at a date agreed by both Parties. Meetings of the Stabilisation and Association Council shall be jointly convened by the Secretaries of the Stabilisation and Association Council in agreement with the Chairman.

Article 3

Representation

The members of the Stabilisation and Association Council may be represented if unable to attend. If a member wishes to be so represented, he must notify the Chairman of the name of his representative before the meeting at which he is to be so represented. The representative of a member of the Stabilisation and Association Council shall exercise all the rights of that member.

Article 4

Delegations

The members of the Stabilisation and Association Council may be accompanied by officials. Before each meeting, the Chairman shall be informed of the intended composition of the delegation of each Party. A representative of the European Investment Bank shall attend the meetings of the Stabilisation and Association Council, as an observer, when matters which concern the Bank appear on the agenda. The Stabilisation and Association Council may invite non-members to attend its meetings in order to provide information on particular subjects.

Article 5

Secretariat

An official of the General Secretariat of the Council of the European Union and an official of the Mission of Serbia to the European Union shall act jointly as Secretaries of the Stabilisation and Association Council.

Article 6

Correspondence

Correspondence addressed to the Stabilisation and Association Council shall be sent to the Chairman of the Stabilisation and Association Council at the address of the General Secretariat of the Council of the European Union.

The two Secretaries shall ensure that correspondence is forwarded to the Chairman of the Stabilisation and Association Council and, where appropriate, circulated to other members of the Stabilisation and Association Council. Correspondence circulated shall be sent to the Secretariat-General of the Commission, the Permanent Representations of the Member States and the Mission of Serbia to the European Union.

Communications from the Chairman of the Stabilisation and Association Council shall be sent to the addressees by the two Secretaries and circulated, where appropriate, to the other members of the Stabilisation and Association Council at the addresses indicated in the second paragraph.

Article 7

Publicity

Unless otherwise decided, the meetings of the Stabilisation and Association Council shall not be public.

Article 8

Agendas for meetings

1. The Chairman shall draw up a provisional agenda for each meeting. It shall be forwarded by the Secretaries of the Stabilisation and Association Council to the addressees referred to in Article 6 not later than 15 days before the beginning of the meeting. The provisional agenda shall include the items in respect of which the Chairman has received a request for inclusion on the agenda not later than 21 days before the beginning of the meeting, although items shall not be written into the provisional agenda unless the supporting documentation has been forwarded to the Secretaries not later than the date of despatch of the agenda. The agenda shall be adopted by the Stabilisation and Association Council at the beginning of each meeting. An item other than those appearing on the provisional agenda may be placed on the agenda if the two Parties so agree.

2. The Chairman may, in agreement with the two Parties, shorten the time limits specified in paragraph 1 in order to take account of the requirements of a particular case.

Article 9

Minutes

Draft minutes of each meeting shall be drawn up by the two Secretaries. The minutes shall, as a general rule, indicate in respect of each item on the agenda:

- the documentation submitted to the Stabilisation and Association Council,
- statements requested for entry by a member of the Stabilisation and Association Council,
- the decisions taken and recommendations made, the statements agreed upon and the conclusions adopted.

The draft minutes shall be submitted to the Stabilisation and Association Council for approval. When approved, the minutes shall be signed by the Chairman and the two Secretaries. The minutes shall be filed in the archives of the General Secretariat of the Council of the European Union, which will act as depository of the documents of the Stabilisation and Association Council. A certified copy shall be forwarded to each of the addressees referred to in Article 6.

Article 10

Decisions and recommendations

1. The Stabilisation and Association Council shall take its decisions and make recommendations by common agreement of the Parties. The Stabilisation and Association Council may take decisions or make recommendations by written procedure if both Parties so agree.
2. The decisions and recommendations of the Stabilisation and Association Council, within the meaning of Article 121 of the Stabilisation and Association Agreement, shall be entitled respectively "Decision" and "Recommendation" followed by a serial number, by the date of their adoption and by a description of their subject matter. The decisions and recommendations of the Stabilisation and Association Council shall be signed by the Chairman and authenticated by the two Secretaries. Decisions and recommendations shall be forwarded to each of the addressees referred to in Article 6 above. Each Party may decide on the publication of decisions and recommendations of the Stabilisation and Association Council in its respective official publication.

Article 11

Languages

The official languages of the Stabilisation and Association Council shall be the official languages of the two Parties. Unless otherwise decided, the Stabilisation and Association Council shall base its deliberations on documentation drawn up in these languages.

Article 12

Expenses

The European Union and Serbia shall each defray the expenses they incur by reason of their participation in the meetings of the Stabilisation and Association Council, both with regard to staff, travel and subsistence expenditure and to postal and telecommunications expenditure. Expenditure in connection with interpreting at meetings, translation and reproduction of documents shall be borne by the European Union, with the exception of expenditure in connection with interpreting or translation into or from the Serbian language, which shall be borne by Serbia. Other expenditure relating to the organisation of meetings shall be borne by the Party hosting the meetings.

Article 13

Stabilisation and Association Committee

1. A Stabilisation and Association Committee is hereby established in order to assist the Stabilisation and Association Council in carrying out its duties. It shall be composed of representatives of the Council of the European Union and of representatives of the European Commission, on the one hand, and of representatives of the Government of Serbia on the other, normally at senior civil servant level.
2. The Stabilisation and Association Committee shall prepare the meetings and the deliberations of the Stabilisation and Association Council, implement the decisions of the Stabilisation and Association Council where appropriate and, in general, ensure continuity of the association relationship and the proper functioning of the Stabilisation and Association Agreement. It shall consider any matter referred to it by the Stabilisation and Association Council as well as any other matter which may arise in the course of the day-to-day implementation of the Stabilisation and Association Agreement. It shall submit proposals or any draft decisions/recommendations for adoption to the Stabilisation and Association Council.
3. In cases where the Stabilisation and Association Agreement refers to an obligation to consult or a possibility of consultation, such consultation may take place within the Stabilisation and Association Committee. The consultation may continue in the Stabilisation and Association Council if the two Parties so agree.
4. The rules of procedure of the Stabilisation and Association Committee are annexed to this Decision.

Article 14

Joint Consultative Committee with the European Economic and Social Committee

1. A Joint Consultative Committee with the European Economic and Social Committee is hereby established, entrusted with the task of assisting the Stabilisation and Association Council with a view to promoting dialogue and cooperation between the social partners and other civil society organisations, in the European Union and Serbia. Such dialogue and cooperation shall encompass all relevant aspects of relations between the European Union and Serbia, as they arise in the context of the implementation of the Stabilisation and Association Agreement. Such dialogue and cooperation shall be aimed in particular at:
 - a) Preparing Serbian social partners and other civil society organisations for activity in the framework of future membership of the European Union;
 - b) Preparing Serbian social partners and other civil society organisations for their participation in the work of the European Economic and Social Committee after the accession of Serbia;
 - c) Exchanging information on issues of mutual interest, in particular on up-to-date state of play on the accession process as well as preparation of Serbian social partners and other civil society organisations for this process;
 - d) Encouraging exchanges of experience, good practices and structured dialogue between a) Serbian social partners and other civil society organisations and b) social partners and other civil society organisations from Member States, including through networking in specific areas where direct contacts and cooperation might prove the most effective way of solving particular problems;
 - e) Discussing any other relevant matters proposed by any side, as they can arise in the context of implementation of the Stabilisation and Association Agreement and in the framework of the Pre-accession.
2. The Joint Consultative Committee with the European Economic and Social Committee shall comprise six representatives of the European Economic and Social Committee and six representatives of Serbia's social partners and other civil society organisations. Observers can be also invited to participate.
3. The Joint Consultative Committee with the European Economic and Social Committee shall carry out its tasks on the basis of consultation by the Stabilisation and Association Council or, with regard to promoting dialogue between economic and social circles, on its own initiative.
4. Members shall be chosen to ensure that the Joint Consultative Committee with the European Economic and Social Committee is as faithful a reflection as possible of the various social partners and other civil society organisations, in both the European Union and Serbia. Official nominations of Serbian members shall be made by the government of Serbia based on proposals from social partners and other civil society organisations. Those proposals shall be based on inclusive and transparent selection procedures among social partners and other civil society organisations.
5. The Joint Consultative Committee with the European Economic and Social Committee shall be co-chaired by a member of the European Economic and Social Committee and a representative of Serbia's social partners and other civil society organisations.
6. The Joint Consultative Committee with the European Economic and Social Committee shall adopt its own Rules of Procedure.
7. The European Economic and Social Committee, on the one hand, and the Serbian Government, on the other hand, shall each defray the expenses they incur by reason of the participation of their delegates in the meetings of the Joint Consultative Committee and of its working groups with regard to staff, travel and subsistence expenditure.

8. Other expenditure relating to the material organisation of meetings shall be borne by the Party which hosts the meetings.

Article 15

Joint Consultative Committee with the Committee of the Regions of the European Union

1. A Joint Consultative Committee with the Committee of the Regions of the European Union is hereby established with the task of assisting the Stabilisation and Association Council with a view to promoting dialogue and cooperation between the local and regional authorities in the European Union and those in Serbia. Such dialogue and cooperation shall be aimed in particular at:
 - a) Preparing Serbian local and regional authorities for activity in the framework of future membership of the European Union;
 - b) Preparing Serbian local and regional authorities for their participation in the work of the Committee of the Regions after the accession of Serbia;
 - c) Exchanging information on current issues of mutual interest, in particular on up-to-date state of play concerning the accession process and those policy areas where the Treaties provide that the Committee of Regions shall be consulted as well as preparation of Serbian local and regional authorities for these policies;
 - d) Encouraging multilateral structured dialogue between a) Serbian local and regional authorities and b) local and regional authorities from the Member States, including through networking in specific areas where direct contacts and cooperation between Serbian local and regional authorities and the local and regional authorities from Member States might prove the most effective way of addressing specific topics of mutual interest;
 - e) Providing regular exchange of information on inter-regional cooperation between Serbian local and regional authorities and local and regional authorities from Member States;
 - f) Encouraging exchange of experience and knowledge in the policy areas where the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union provides that the Committee of Regions shall be consulted, between a) Serbian local and regional authorities and b) local and regional authorities from Member States, in particular know-how and techniques concerning preparation of local and regional development plans or strategies and most efficient use of the pre-accession and Structural Funds;
 - g) Assisting Serbian local and regional authorities by means of information exchange in particular implementation of the principle of subsidiarity in all aspects of life on local and regional level;
 - h) Discussing any other relevant matters proposed by any side, as they can arise in the context of implementation of the Stabilisation and Association Agreement and in the framework of the Pre-accession talks.
2. The Joint Consultative Committee with the Committee of the Regions of the European Union shall comprise [seven] representatives of the Committee of the Regions, on the one hand, and [seven] elected representatives of the local and regional authorities of Serbia, on the other hand. An equal number of alternate members shall be appointed.

3. The Joint Consultative Committee with the Committee of the Regions of the European Union shall carry out its activities on the basis of consultation by the Stabilisation and Association Council or, as concerns the promotion of the dialogue between the local and regional authorities, on its own initiative.
4. The Joint Consultative Committee with the Committee of the Regions of the European Union may make recommendations to the Stabilisation and Association Council.
5. Members shall be chosen to ensure that the Joint Consultative Committee with the Committee of the Regions is a faithful reflection of the various levels of local and regional authorities in both the European Union and Serbia. Official nominations of Serbian members shall be made by the government of Serbia based on proposals from organisations representing local and regional authorities in Serbia. Those proposals shall be based on inclusive and transparent selection procedures among representatives holding local or regional electoral mandates.
6. The Joint Consultative Committee with the Committee of the Regions of the European Union shall adopt its own Rules of Procedure.
7. The Joint Consultative Committee with the Committee of the Regions of the European Union shall be co-chaired by a member of the Committee of the Regions and a representative of the local and regional authorities of Serbia.
8. The Committee of the Regions, on the one hand, and the Government of Serbia, on the other hand, shall each defray the expenses incurred by reason of the participation of their delegates and supporting staff in the meetings of the Joint Consultative Committee with the Committee of the Regions of the European Union, in particular with regard to travel and subsistence expenditure.

9. Other expenditure relating to the material organisation of meetings shall be borne by the Party which hosts the meetings.

ANNEX II

Terms of Reference of the EU – Serbia Subcommittees and Special Group

Composition and Chair

The subcommittees and the special group on public administration reform (special group on PAR) shall be composed of representatives of the European Commission and representatives of the government of Serbia. They shall be co-chaired by the two parties. The Member States will be informed and invited to the meetings of the subcommittees and the special group on PAR.

Secretariat

An official of the European Commission and an official of the government of Serbia shall act jointly as secretaries of each of the subcommittees and of the special group on PAR.

All communications concerning the subcommittees shall be forwarded to the secretaries of the relevant subcommittee and of the special group on PAR.

Meetings

The subcommittees and the special group on PAR shall meet whenever circumstances require, with the agreement of both Parties. Each meeting of a subcommittee or the special group on PAR shall be held at a time and place agreed by both Parties.

If both Parties agree, the subcommittees and the special group on PAR may invite experts to their meetings to provide the specific information requested.

Subject matters

The subcommittees shall discuss issues related to the areas of the SAA as listed in the multidisciplinary subcommittee structure. Progress regarding the alignment, implementation and enforcement of EU legislation, as well as key issues related to programming and implementation of relevant IPA projects shall be assessed under all subject matters. The subcommittees shall examine any problems that may arise in their relevant sectors and shall suggest possible steps to be taken.

The subcommittees shall also serve as fora for the further clarification of the acquis and shall review progress made by Serbia in conforming to the acquis in line with commitments taken under the SAA.

The special group on PAR shall discuss issues related to public administration reform and suggest possible steps to be taken.

Minutes

Minutes shall be taken for and agreed after each meeting. A copy of the minutes shall be forwarded by the secretary of the subcommittee or the special group on PAR to the Secretary of the Stabilisation and Association Committee.

Publicity

Unless otherwise decided, the meetings of the subcommittees and of the special group on PAR shall not be public.
